4 Open Spaces

Rarely does an opportunity like this present itself where a property zoned B4 Mixed Use is offered to the market in such a prime, high visibility position. With frontages on both Lawes and Melbourne Streets and offering both residential and commercial spaces, this property provides a perfect opportunity for a plethora of trade business owners that are looking to live onsite or require high visibility shedding and would like the additional income renting the residence out would provide.

The commercial aspect of the property offers a 125sqm workshop or showroom space including a dedicated office area, accessible bathroom and mezzanine storage as well as three dedicated car parks. NBN is connected and three phase power as well as 46 panels of solar is available and to make working conditions more pleasant, the shed has been screened on the roller and sliding doors, there are three whirly birds installed, the roof is fully insulated and two wall mounted ACs have been installed.

The three bedroom home at the front of the property has recently been given a facelift and offers wall mounted AC to all three of the bedrooms, a separate study at the rear and an almost new kitchen with breakfast bar and electric cooking. The bathroom has been updated and offers a separate bath and shower and fresh tiling.

When opportunity knocks, will you listen? Book an inspection today.
